Hi there!

My Name is My Olsson, born 1992 in Stockholm Sweden, and I got the title Digital Content Designer from my education with the same name, which I graduated from in May 2019.

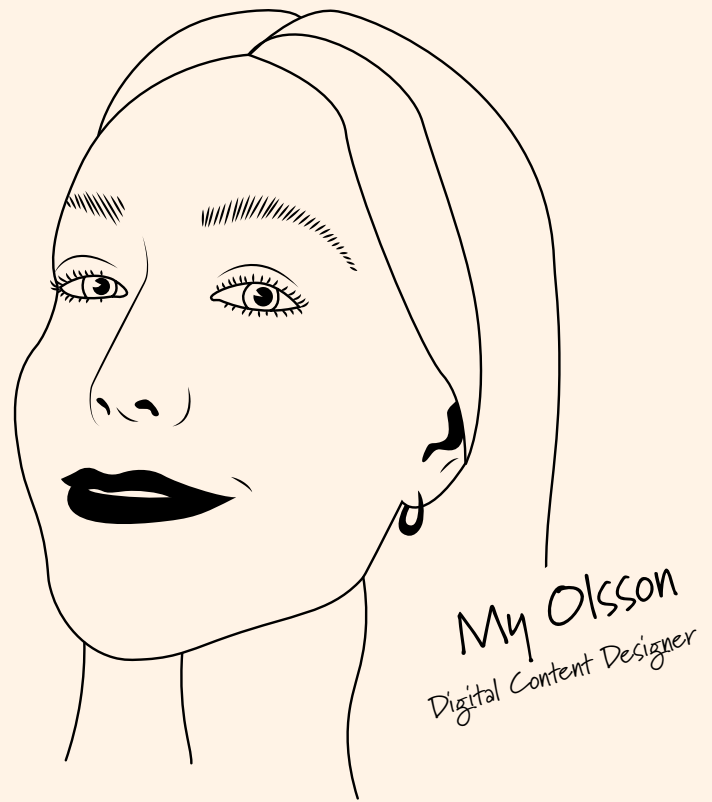

My latest commitment was at the advertising agency Ruth, where I was for eight months. In addition to that, I have freelanced since 2017, where I have created everything from logos and posters to graphic profiles. I love to work in teams, but have no problem working independently as well. I breathe creative ideas and love brainstorming them with other creative minds!

I run the Instagram account @hundarpatuben, which I started in January 2019. The account has received attention both on social media and in the news.

From 2013–2017, I ran a podcast with my friend with new episodes every other week.

I'm also a mentor to a 14-year old girl since January 2019, through the organisation Mentor.

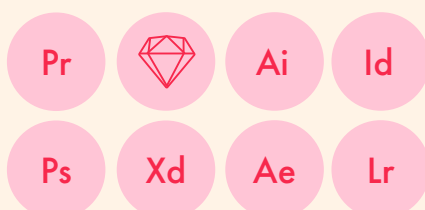

On my spare time I like to take care of my plants, watch tv-series, go to the movies and cook food! (And eat it).
